IS BENNETT TIRED OF THE "HERALD"?-In conversation with a representative of the New York Graphic the other day, Editor Henry Watterson related a little story about James Gordon Bennett that will be read with deep interest because of its unexpected character and undoubted anthenticity. Mr. Watterson and Mr. Bennett were voyagers on the same steamer when the Kentuckian made his last trip to Europe. They were the only cabin passengers who did not suffer from seasickness, and by virtue of this fact as well as by their identity of profession the two editors became quite intimate and exchanged many confidences. When they spoke of the reputed fascination of the newspaper business, Mr. Bennett said that the phrase had a good, deal of fiction in it as applied to him. He did not, by any means, feel so bound up in the Herald as most persons might suppose. In fact, he had wearied of the responsibility some time ago and would rather be free to see the world according to his own caprice or inclination.

If it were not for the promise made to his If it were not for the promise made to his tather, he would sell the Herald. As soon as his sister Jeannette's (Mrs. Bell's) children grew up, he added, he would have the name of one of them legally changed to James Gordon Bennett, and would put it at the top of the Herald column in place of his

"Over and Over Again."

Repetition is sometimes the only way to impress a truth upon the mind. Accordingly take notice that Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets," (the original Little Liver Pills) continue to be wonderfully effective in cases of sick and nervous headache, constination, indigestion, rush of blood to the pation, indigestion, rush of blood to the head, cold extremities, and all ailments arising from obstruction of the bodily functions. Their action is thorough yet gentle, and the ingredients being entirely vegetable, they can be taken with impunity into the most delicate stomach. All druggists.

WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic.
